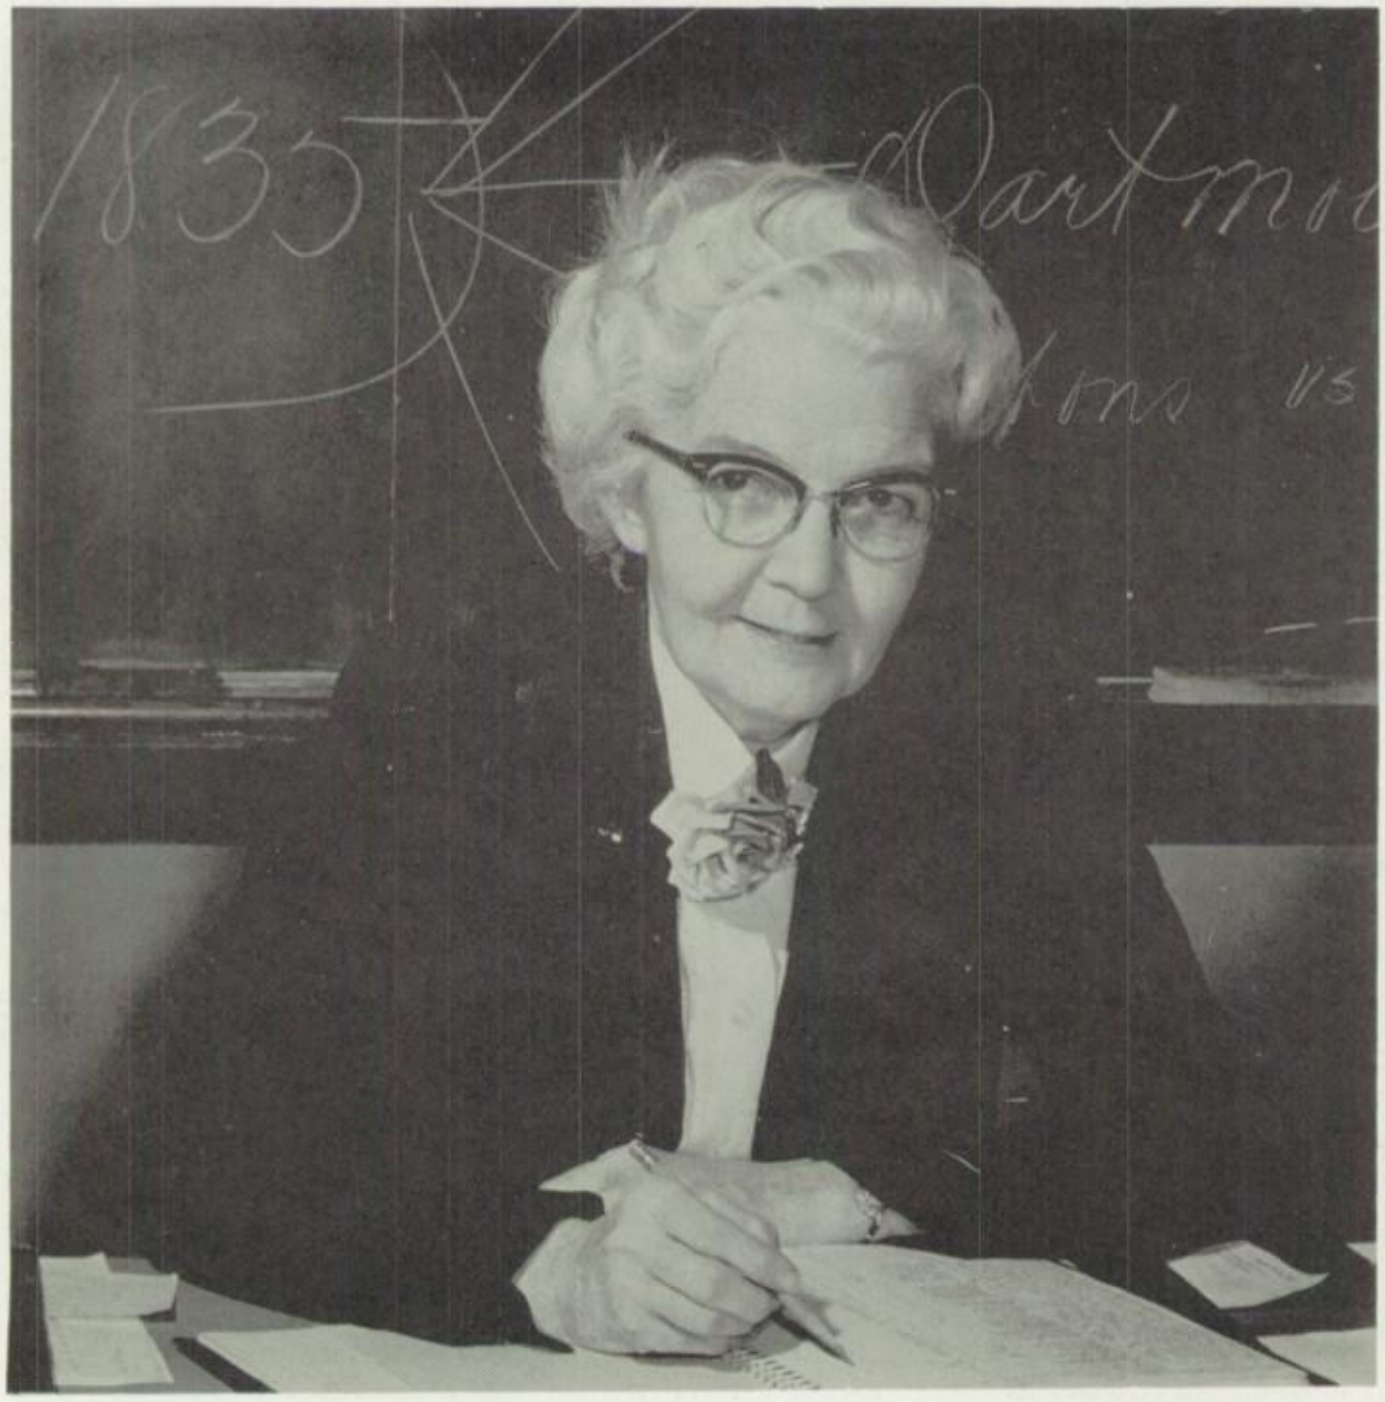
Dedication



The Senior Class of 1961 wishes to dedicate this yearbook to Mrs. Clara Depew. As a teacher for 33 years she has influenced and guided a great mass of students. Now, as she begins her retirement, we wish to speak for all of them and sincerely express our appreciation and deepest respect for those many years of dedicated service. As a teacher, she taught us to respect and honor our American heritage, and to appreciate the contributions of other nations. As a friend, she has guided and directed us in innumerable ways. Mrs. Depew, we thank you.

American Education Week

American Education Week was highlighted this year by an Open House and supper. About 750 students, teachers, and visitors attended. Room visitation, student exhibits and demonstrations were included. During the week three assembly programs were presented by the students. Mrs. Limner's and Mrs. Clark's third grades, Mr. King's and Mr. Starr's sixth grades, and senior high students presented the assemblies.

During the summer, the band played in a number of contests and concerts. They won several including the Lodi Carnival and the Trumansburg Fair. Throughout the summer the members of the band also continued their instrumental lessons with Mr. Jacoby instructing them once a week.

In the fall, they journeyed to Ithaca where they participated in the annual Cornell Field Day at the Cornell-Colgate football game. Other activities of the band are playing for assemblies and at the Willard Field Day. During the year they entertain the school and community playing for the Christmas program and presenting the Spring Concert along with the choruses.

This year, the band has new uniforms. They have many advantages. The coats can be worn five different ways. The pants will expand for growth.

We, the staff of the 1961 Ovidian, after much hard work and fun, have finally finished our masterpiece.

Any student in grades 9-12 can join Yearbook Club. If you would like to help make the 1962 Ovidian a better one, join Yearbook Club next fall.

Our hard-working advisors, Mrs. Dusharm and Mr. Gates deserve our grateful thanks for all their work.

We are now ready to retire for the year, a very, very tired staff.
